Membership in the Association is open to all teachers of the classics and to others interested in classical studies who reside in the territory covered by the organization. Libraries are also admitted to membership. The membership fee is $2.00 per year, and members receive the Classical Journal and Classical Philology without further expense. Applications for membership should be sent to the Vice-President of the state in which the applicant resides or to the Secretary-Treasurer.

The next meeting of the Association will be held at Nashville, Tennessee, in the spring of 1908.
